

Until Further Notice

We will give a discount of 8 per cent. on all cash sales except brown and bleached domestics, which will be sold for 5 per cent. discount, job lots and special sales at prices named and no discount.

This will enable us to sell $1.25 worth of goods for $1.15.

For Example:

Any one selling goods on credit is sure to lose at least 5 per cent. and it will cost at least 3 per cent. to keep books and collect accounts. This 8 per cent. the customer saves by paying cash, and we make 5 per cent. by having the ready cash to discount our bills. So you see the customer paying cash gets goods 8 per cent. cheaper than the one who buys on credit. Does this not seem reasonable? Think the matter over and give us your cash trade and save that 8 per cent., which is good interest on your money.

Yours truly,

J M Hendr x & Co.

"THE HEART OF CUBA"

Will Be Played at the Academy of Music Tonight.

The greatest success of the season will be presented by "The Merry-makers" tonight at the Academy of Music. This company, the strongest that has played the South, will be remembered on account of the fine performances given here during Thanksgiving week. The play presented tonight deals with strife between the downtrodden Cubans and their relentless foes of Spain. The play is strictly up-to-date, full of stirring scenes and thrilling climaxes, and through all this is a vein of pure wholesome and refreshing comedy.

Ladies tickets are distributed for tonight. Two ladies, or a gentleman and lady will be admitted on one 30-cent ticket. Tomorrow night "The Land of Gold," Saturday night, "The Outcast," and Saturday matinee, "The Great Diamond Mystery."

Baseball Saturday.

The first game of college baseball will be played here Saturday between Johns Hopkins University and Oak Ridge Institute. This will be the first game of Hopkins players in the State this season. They played a good game with Georgetown University last week and would probably have won the game but, for the disabling of Hopkins, catcher. Captain Robinson and third baseman McGraw, of the Baltimore team have been the coaching the players and have them in good condition. The Oak Ridge team have just returned from a victorious trip through Virginia. Both teams are in good trim and those who attend will witness a good game. The game will be called at 3 o'clock. Admission 25 cents.

Carolina Shoe Store.

This is the name of the shoe store to be run here by Mr. S. B. Norris, who has just bought out the shoe store of Sample Brown. Mr. Norris was for several years with W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co., in Raleigh, later of the well-known and popular firm of Norris & Carter. He is a hustling, up-to-date man, knows how to handle goods, knows what to buy and before laying in a brand new stock throughout will make great sacrifices in the goods now on the shelves, many of which are just in and had not even been unpacked. The store will be open to the public tomorrow morning. Read the new ad on this page, and call on Mr. Norris.

The Goods Being Bought.

The buyer for the new store of D. Bendheim & Sons, is now in the northern markets making selections and purchases of new goods for the opening, which will be soon. The store room formerly occupied by the Guilford Department store will be repainted and refurnished and will make one of the handsomest stores in the city.

But is McKinley a Lincoln?

Some sympathizer with President McKinley in the trying times he is passing through, has found in the life of Abraham Lincoln an incident that is timely. It is given in the New York Tribune as follows:

"At the White House one day some gentlemen were present from the west, excited and troubled about the commissions and omissions of the administration. The president heard them patiently, and then replied: 'Gentlemen, suppose all the property you were worth was in gold, and you had put it in the hands of Blondin to carry across the Niagara river on a rope, would you shake the cable or keep shouting out to him, 'Blondin, stand up a little straighter; Blondin, stoop a little more; go a little faster; lean a little more to the south?' No, you would hold your breath as well as your tongue, and keep your hands off until he was safe over. The government are carrying an immense weight. Untold treasures are in their hands. They are doing the very best they can. Don't badger them. Keep silence, and we'll get you safe across.'—Raymond's Life of Abraham Lincoln, page 752.

To Protect Beaufort Harbor.

Beaufort, N. C. April 6—United States Engineer, Col. Craghill, and Assistant Engineer F. D. Perry, arrived here tonight for the purpose of formulating plans for protecting Beaufort harbor and garrisoning Port Macon.

It is probable that a mosquito fleet will be formed for this port and in case of war the government telegraph line will be extended from Hatteras to Wilmington.

Attention Southsides.

Every member of the Southside Hose Co., is requested to be present at their regular monthly meeting tonight at 8 o'clock. By order of J. H. Phipps, Pres.

AN ARMISTICE IS DECLARED

Between President McKinley and Congress.

YET THERE IS GREAT DISGUST

Representatives of the Foreign Powers Call on President McKinley and Plead for Peace.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, April 7—Consul General Lee cables that quiet prevails and that 200 Americans have left. Secretary Day says General Lee will probably leave on Saturday and that the Americans are leaving rapidly. There are no important developments in the situation anywhere.

Elaborate preparations are going on at the White House for the entertainment of 100 guests in the east room by Mrs. McKinley in honor of a number of ladies who are visiting her.

WILL BE NO CHANGE.

Washington, April 7—Congressman Grosvenor, after a conference with the president this morning, said that there would be no change in the message unless there is a change of facts which is unlikely.

The senate committee on foreign affairs didn't meet today. Senator Gray of the foreign relations committee, after a talk with the president, expressed the belief that Minister Woodford and General Lee would not remain at their posts after the opening of next week.

NOTHING SIGNIFICANT.

Washington, April 7—A cable from Minister Woodford concerning yesterday's cabinet meeting has been received, but it contains nothing significant.

PLEAD FOR PEACE.

Washington, April 7—Representatives of England, France, Germany, Austria, Russia and Italy called on the president and Secretary of State Sherman today to plead for peace. The visit was short and it was impossible to get further facts.

DEEP DISGUST OVER DELAY.

Washington, April 7—Upon learning that there were no riots and that all is quiet in Havana, many members of both houses of congress expressed deep disgust over the delay in sending the President's message to congress, which delay was attributed to threatened riots in Havana.

TEXAS AT NEWPORT NEWS.

Newport, April 7—The battleship Texas arrived here this morning.

CONGRESS ACCEPTS EXPLANATION.

Washington, April 7—An armistice is declared between the president and congress pending which an effort will be made to recapture the lost "situation" that mysteriously disappeared yesterday. Congress is disposed to accept the explanation of the withholding of message, provided the president sticks to the statement that the delay is due to the safety of Americans in Cuba. It is impossible to find words to express the feeling of indignation and disgust which prevailed among senators and representatives during yesterday's events.

POWERS ASKING PEACE.

Washington, April 7—Representatives of the Powers have tendered their good offices with the hope for the maintenance of peace and the re-establishment of order in Cuba. McKinley responded that he recognized the good will and friendly tone of the communication and shared in the hope, therein expressed, that the outcome of the situation in Cuba would be the maintenance of peace between the United States and Spain and the re-establishment of order on the island and terminating the chronic condition of disturbance.

The president further said he is confident that equal appreciation will be shown for its own earnest and unselfish endeavors to fulfill the duty to humanity by ending the situation which has by its infinite prolongation become insufferable.

First Lesson.

The first of Mrs. S. T. Rorer's lessons on cooking before the department of domestic science at the Normal was given yesterday afternoon. Quite a number of housekeepers in the city took advantage of these lessons and attended the lecture.

Notes From Oak Ridge.

Correspondence Telegram.

Oak Ridge, April 7th.

The first school and college game of this season in Greensboro will be played Saturday, April 9th at 3 p. m. between Johns-Hopkins University and Oak Ridge Institute. Johns-Hopkins has an unusually strong team and the Oak Ridge boys have just returned from a trip to leading Virginia schools flushed with victory. So a good game may be expected.

Our boys won from Virginia Polytechnic Institute at Blackburg by a score of 18 to 5. From St. Albans school at Radford 10 to 9, ten innings game. The latter team is one of the very strongest in Virginia, winning last year from all the schools in that state except the University.

Barker and Malone did the pitching. While Malone is only a colt, he is a whole team and bids fair to be the greatest pitcher we have had since Stephens.

AMERICANS ARE UNPREPARED

This Opinion Causes Defiant Attitude in Madrid.

DENIED THE SECOND ULTIMATUM

The Panic Among Cubans Exceeds That Among Americans on the Cuban Island.

By Cable THE TELEGRAM.

Madrid, April 7—A dispatch to the Imparcial from Havana says there is intense excitement in that city. Three hundred and eighty-six passports have been issued within twenty-four hours. The wharves are piled with baggage and the streets are patrolled by cavalry. Four reconcentrados, who were liberated last Tuesday, were found murdered near the outskirts of Santa Clara.

SPAIN TO REMAIN FIRM.

Madrid, April 7—Minister Woodford will present a fresh note to the Spanish government today demanding a definite answer within six hours. The cabinet has decided to firmly adhere to the tenor of Spain's previous note. The Queen Regent has approved this decision.

SPAIN MORE CONFIDENT.

Madrid, April 7—The pope sent an important communication to Premier Sagasta last night which was the subject of a special cabinet meeting. The most striking feature of the situation is the fact that, owing to the policy of procrastination at Washington, the Spaniards believe that the Americans are unprepared and afraid to fight. This opinion causes a defiant attitude on the part of Spain.

EXCITEMENT IN SPAIN.

Madrid, April 7—The postponement of McKinley's message increased the excitement here. A prolonged cabinet council was held last night. Nobody believes there will be a peaceful settlement. Premier Sagasta denies that there is any dissension in the cabinet.

BELICOSE TALK IN MADRID.

Madrid, April 7—After the cabinet meeting a semi-official note was issued which was regarded as serious. The announcement caused much excitement and bellicose talk. The cafes are crowded and people are eagerly discussing the situation and approving the attitude of the cabinet. It is the general impression that the United States presented an ultimatum and demanded an answer in six hours; that Spain modified the note presented with the result of the last conference.

SECOND ULTIMATUM DENIED.

Madrid, April 7—It is still hoped that McKinley's message will be postponed and that the original program of autonomy will be carried out. The second ultimatum presented by the United States has been denied.

CUBANS WANT TO LEAVE.

Havana, April 7—The panic among the Cubans exceeds that among Americans here. They realize that in the event of hostilities they will be unable to leave and will be at the mercy of the volunteers. They would like to go to the United States. The report that the American fleet will simultaneously attack Cuba, Porto Rico, the Philippines has added to the rage of the Spaniards.

KILLED BY SPANISH POLICE.

Havana, April 7—Tomas Brito, a wealthy farmer of Matanzas, was assassinated by the Spanish police because he sheltered a wounded Cuban officer.

VICTORIA AGAIN APPEALED TO.

London, April 7—The Queen Regent again appealed directly to Queen Victoria asking her to exert her influence to avert war, adding that she "touchingly recalled that both are widows, thus are deprived of advisors."

The Stock Sale.

The auction sale of stock from the Ocoonechee farm took place at McAdoo's stables today. One hundred head of cattle were sold. There were buyers from the near by towns in addition to a number from the city. The prices brought were about as good as was expected.

Knights Templar Attention.

There will be a stated conclave of Ivanhoe Commandery, No. 8, Knights Templar this evening at 7:30 p. m. All Sir Knights will attend in full uniform for the annual installation of officers. Visiting Sir Knights cordially welcomed. By order of Jas. D. Glenn, Eminent Commander.

COLUMBUS' TOMB.

Will Probably Share in the Destruction of Havana.

If, as is confidently expected, the guns of our big battleships are trained upon the city of Havana it will be a military salute over the grave of Spanish power in the western world. And it will be a strange, almost a sad, coincidence that this same salute will scatter to the four winds all that is left of the man who gave to Spain that magnificent colonial empire of which a few scattered islands is the last remnant.

Christopher Columbus lies buried in the Cathedral of Havana and his tomb will in all probability share in the destruction of the city.

It will be our guns which do the deed, but the guilt will rest, not upon us but upon the head of that cruel and ungrateful people who in life rewarded the great discoverer with chains and is now forcing us in the course of humanity to raise his tomb.

Fruit Killed.

It is thought now that there is no doubt about the fruit crop being killed. Several light frosts and two regular old wintertime freezes have undoubtedly done the work for it. It is greatly regretted. The fruit crop is an important one in this part of the state.

The only time when it would have been possible to arbitrate the Maine incident was before the Spanish official pressed the button that caused the "accident."

Whatever the Spaniards and Insurgents may do it is highly improbable that the yellow fever bacillus can be induced to take any part in the armistice arrangements.

The populist executive committee, which met in Raleigh yesterday, sat upon Mr. Marion Butler by the very decisive vote of 16 to 4. One cannot help feeling that it is a pity that 3 out of the 4 did not remain silent and thus conform the squelching to the cabalistic unities.

It will be an easy matter for the president to get any amount of delay from the senate he may desire. There is still a large and eloquent number of that dignified body who have not gone through the preliminaries necessary to franking home to eager constituents, copies of a burning utterance on the Cuban situation.

It is said that Senator Butler and Governor Russell have fallen out and have almost come to jawing. Let Mr. Butler beware. He is at the double disadvantage of being comparatively inexperienced in the gubernatorial style of controversy and of not having a reverend private secretary to absolve him when the sulphurous contest is at an end.

Despite the fact that his excellency went before the railroad commission and imitated the vocalization of the bull of Bashan, Chairman Caldwell's resignation which was shied at the gubernatorial foot has not yet been picked up. Can it be that His Excellency, at length summoning a cheerful philosophy to his aid, is waiting confidently for Mr. Caldwell to once more change his mind?

The worm has turned. "The gentle muse that issued from the lonely heart" of Mr. J. Gordon Coogler, the laureate of the Congaree, has given place to Athens in full panoply of war. We take the following metric quatrain from a metric satire in his latest volume that is a Dunciad, a MacFlecknoe, an English Bards and Scotch Reviewers, all in one:

Oh, you domestic critics who always quote,
But cannot e'en compose a readable letter;
I defy you with all your self-blown wisdom,
To write a decent line of verse—or make mine better.

Hereafter all carping ones should either be silent or demonstrate their ability to make Mr. Coogler's verse "better."

Speaking of the meeting of the populist executive committee the Raleigh Post says:

One of Butler's confidential friends said this morning, after the meeting: "Butler expected the committee to be hostile to him. In fact, he had every reason to believe that he would receive worse treatment than he has, and I can assure you that he is satisfied with the outcome. It is only a committee meeting. These fellows won't be knee high in the convention. Then you will see how and who Butler is. Just wait."

The friend of Senator Butler is probably right. He is still boss of the populist party. The subservience of the party to him has been too slavish to be thus suddenly cast off. Mr. Butler is blessed with more political shrewdness than the whole executive committee combined. When he shall crack his whip in the convention it is not at all improbable that the executive committee along with the other opponents of Senator Butler's policy will crouch and whine in abject admission of his supremacy. Mr. Butler's qualifications for a populist boss are admirably fitted to the exigencies that confront him.

IS BUTLER DOWNED?

Some After-Thoughts of The Pop Committee Meeting.

We make the following extracts from a long list in the News & Observer of opinions expressed as to the plans of the Populists and as to Butler's Waterloo:

While there is no denial of the facts printed in the News and Observer, there was many differences as to the conclusions drawn.

"If you think it was a Waterloo for Butler, you are mistaken," said a man who voted for the date fixed. "It shows as to Butler, that he cannot control the committee, but nothing else. He got the chief thing he wanted—a resolution that no action looking to nomination for office shall be taken until after the State convention. That ties the hands of all those who have already been getting ready for fusion deals in some counties. Some of the Republican-Populists wanted the convention postponed until June, so as to hold it about the same time the Republicans could meet. It would be as correct to say that they were annihilated as to say that Butler's goose was cooked."

Senator John W. Atwater, of Chatham, scouts the idea that Butler was downed.

"You can say for me," said Mr. Atwater, "that Senator Butler was not set down on by a vote of 16 to 4. At the present time Senator Butler holds a warmer spot in the hearts of every populist in North Carolina than he ever has before. The rank and file are all with him."

I asked Mr. Atwater what was the outlook and he was, as ever, ready with his answer.

"You see," said the populist from Chatham, "since the silver democrats got religion at Chicago, they've been regenerated and we wish to be with them."

"There will be a proposition made to the democrats and it will be a fair one for co-operation but we don't think they'll accept."

"Is it such that they cannot accept?" I asked.

"Oh, no," he continued, "not that exactly, but we don't want them to get too good a hold on the legislature and we ain't going to do it, either. The proposition will be a fair one, to meet on equal ground, unite on silver in congressional elections and maybe go all the way down to the county officers."

Mr. Atwater says such is Senator Butler's wish. He says it is his wish and he believes the proposition will be made by their State convention in good faith.

Mr. Maury Ward, of Duplin, a former of the legislature, was not inclined to talk much about the action.

"Butler has the confidence of the party," he said.

I asked an influential Populist, who knows how the cat is going to jump as well as the next one, what was the feeling of the Populists in the meeting.

"A majority of members of the committee," said he, "are in favor of continued Republican fusion. Most of them have offices they are afraid they will lose if there is any change of plan. One of them told me that he could keep in the receipt of his good salary if he could get the solid negro vote and a third of the populist vote in his county, and he did not propose to give that up for silver or any other principle of the party. While a majority of the Executive committee was in favor of republican fusion, a large majority of the 40 or 50 populists here report that the voters in their counties are sick of it, and are anxious for a union of forces of the advocates of free silver, as on the electoral ticket of 1896. If that can be secured, it will please nine-tenths of our voters."

Tristan d'Aconha in the South Atlantic has sent out its annual mail to the world. There are 64 persons on the island—18 men, 19 women, 15 boys and 12 girls. They have 900 head of cattle, nearly double what the island can pasture and 500 sheep. They are anxious to sell the superfluous cattle and are in need of vegetable seeds, especially those of cabbage and onions.

ARCHBISHOP IRELAND'S WORK.

Tried to Tone Down Senator Davis' Views and Didn't Succeed.

Washington, April 5.—So many different stories have been printed concerning the presence of Archbishop Ireland in Washington at this time that his friends decided today that the facts should be printed. The Archbishop is a strong peace man. He does not believe in war.

"The Archbishop and Senator Cushman K. Davis of Minnesota, chairman of the senate foreign relations committee," said a close friend of the Archbishop, "are warm personal friends."

Mr. Davis is strong believer in war and the Archbishop came to Washington in the hope that he could tone down the senator's opinions and persuade him to abandon his position. The Archbishop has had talks with the president and Senator Davis, but he has been unable to dissuade the senator from his views.

It was further said for Archbishop Ireland that a recent unfavorable decision by the land commission of the interior department, concerning the Archbishop's diocese, was another potent reason for his visit to Washington at this time.

GETTING MIGHTY PARTICULAR.

Cuban Junta Disposed to Dictate to the United States.

New York, April 6.—A statement is published today, ascribed to Horatio S. Rubens, counsel of the Cuban delegation in this city, which has caused some alarm among "the Cubans here and American sympathizers."

Rubens was quoted as saying that, without a previous recognition of independence, armed intervention by this country, even for the purpose of effecting independence, would be resented by the Cubans, and that they would fight the American army as they were now fighting the Spanish.

Rubens referred only to the landing of the American army on the island to force the Cubans to accept either autonomy under the Spanish or be annexed to this country without a previous consultation with them as to their wishes.

He said later that the Cubans would welcome the American army to aid them in achieving their independence.

The largest express package ever sent to Winston arrived here Saturday. It was the last piece of machinery for the Fries Motive Power company and weighed 3,000 pounds. It was sent to the Yadkin river yesterday and as soon as it can be placed in position the plant will be ready for transmitting power to the Twin-City. The company has been waiting for this piece of machinery for some time.—Winston Sentinel.

Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed when the languid, exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal fevers. No medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, constipation, dizziness yield to Electric Bitters. 50c. and $1.00 per bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store.

Spain's bull fighters made money
last year. Mazzantini in 66 fights killed 168 bulls, and made 396,000 pesetas; Reverete's score was 71 fights, 160 bulls, and 276,000 pesetas, while Guerrita,
with 76 fights and 147 bulls slaughtered, earned 456,000 pesetas or $91,000.

FAST TIME FROM EUROPE.

Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse's Trip in 5 Days 20 Hours.

New York, April 6.—The North German Lloyd steamer Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse has again lowered the record from Southampton. She arrived today, having made the passage in 5 days and 20 hours, which is two hours and 35 minutes less time than her best previous record from Southampton, made on her maiden trip in September of last year. On that trip she covered a distance of 3050 knots at an average speed of 31.39 knots. On her present trip she covered 3120 knots, increasing her average speed to 22.39 knots per hour.

Jew Against Syrian.

A peculiar case was argued before the Supreme court yesterday—Levi vs.
Marshall, from Winston. The plaintiff is a Jewess from Jerusalem, and the defendant is a Syrian woman from Damaeus. Both of them now live in Winston, where the defendant has two stores. She is married and has been in this country seven years. Though her husband has never been here, she claims that she is not liable on a contract made without her husband's consent. The Supreme court will hardly sustain her in this position.—News Observer.

ORDERS TO FITZHUGH, JR.

Consul General Lee Advises Him to "Hold the Fort."

Richmond, April 6.—Fitzhugh Lee,
Jr., who contemplated leaving Richmond to join his father, Consul General Lee, at Havana, received about noon a cablegram from his father advising him to "hold the fort for further orders." He thereupon gave up his trip.

A close personal friend of General
Lee's here, received a letter from him today, in which the consul general stated that he would remain in Havana
"until the clouds fall, or until I am recalled by the United States government." For the present he says he is going right along, "keeping in the middle of the road."

Mrs. Lee received a cablegram from her husband today, couched in reassuring terms.

JUDGE AVERY TOO BUSY

To Write History of North Carolina Soldiers.

After expending a great deal of time and labor in collecting material, Judge Avery has been very reluctantly compelled, by pressure of other business engagements, to give up writing the history of the North Carolina troops during the Confederate war, and to rescind his contract with the Atlanta Publishing company. He abandons the work with much regret, but he is unable to write the history now without neglecting important and profitable professional work.

The people of the state will regret that Judge Avery's professional duties compel him to give up this work.
He was one of the bravest men the state sent to the front in the late war and had peculiar fitness for furnishing to posterity a true and appreciative account of the valor of those brave men who were "first at Bethel; last at Appomattox."

The name of Maj. Graham Daves have been suggested as a fit historian.
He is a scholarly man, well qualified for the work.

IMPORTANT EXPLORATION.

Geologist Holmes and Dr. Pratt to Examine North Carolina Sounds.

Dr. J. H. Pratt, the mineralogist of the survey, and the state geologist, Prof. J. A. Holmes, were in the city yesterday and left this morning for New Bern, where they start Friday on an expedition through the larger sounds.

The shell fish commissioner, Capt.
White, accompanies the party and the Steamer Lily will transport the expedition from point to point on the shores of the sounds.

The geological formations and the forest resources along the shores will be given to the character of bottom of the sounds and its adaptability to the growth of the oyster.

Prof. Holmes tells the Post that three additional reports of the survey will soon be distributed. First, on the timber and forest resources; second, on clay deposits and clay industries and third, on gold mining and metallurgical methods.—Morning Post.

The O'Higgins May Be Ours.

Newcastle-on Tyne, England, April 6.—The Chilean cruiser O'Higgins has been taken over tonight by the Chilean Naval Commission without undergoing speed or gun trials. A tempting offer from Commander Brownson, of the United States, being considered. She is not expected to sail immediately.

Communications are passing between the Chilean agent in Paris, Admiral Tribi, and Commander Brownson, and it is believed by the Chilean Naval Commission here that her acquisition by the United States is only a question of price. The Chilean Government is understood to be also treating with Spain.

In The Track of Our Shipping.

London, April 6.—The Chronicle prints a report that one or two Spanish warships are prowling about off Queenstown in the track of vessels playing between the United States and Great Britain.

If this report is correct, the presence of the warships has possibly some connection with the disabled torpedo boat Audaz, which is being repaired
at Waterford.

Spain, for obvious reasons, is most anxious to get the Audaz away as speedily as possible. The sister ship of the Audaz has reached Ferrol.

Notes of The Prowler

"Some years ago," said the Prowler as he tumbled into the office this morning, "I read in the newspapers that Rube and Jim Burrus held up an express train on a western road. Rube and Jim were daring lads and followed the holding up business for a living;
but they have been swept from the scene of action and it seems that there are others in the business now. I read in the paper last night that McKinley's message had been held up; and the papers today say that maybe it will never be sent to congress."

"Now, I would like to know the why and the wherefore of all this tomfoolery. The safety of the Americans in Cuba is given as one reason for holding up the message. Evidence of a complete yielding by Spain is probably authority for the statement that it may never be sent to congress."

"How is it, anyhow? Several days ago the same state of affairs existed,
according to the press dispatches.
Spain had accepted the 'demands of the United States,' whatever they were. The next batch of news came along and denied the whole business and said that 'no such proposition'
had ever been received in Madrid."

"Then we had it steaming hot from the wires on the authority of a 'semi-official note' that Spain would never grant Cuban independence and before she would yield to the demands of Uncle Samuel she would go to war."

"And now when the key to the padlock with which our war dogs are fastened, is in the hands of the keeper ready to throw back the rusty bolt, we get another cablegram from Madrid and it is as follows: 'It is stated that Spain is willing to grant all that the United States asks and that a satisfactory settlement will be arranged.'"

"The keeper drops the rusty chain and says: 'I'll wait till Monday, anyhow, and maybe I'll wait forever.'"

"Well, let him wait. It's an ill wind that blows nobody any good,
and while the plan of Rube and Jim was different they were benefited by their 'hold up,' and somebody will be benefited by the holding up of the president's message. There is deep laid scheming, gambling and robbery in the game and patriotism must take a back seat."

After speaking thus the Prowler went up to a cigar store and worked the slot machine for two smokes.

The Hardware News.

PUBLISHED BY ODELL HARDWARE CO.

EDITORIAL.

This is a period of great uncertainty.
Take the matter of war with Spain,
concerning which there is so much talk.

In the first place, it is uncertain as to whether we shall have war.

And if we do it is uncertain how long it will last, or how much damage will be done—or anything—

Except—no one seems to think it uncertain that we shall finally lick
'em.

That's all.

Then take the weather.

No one knows what will be needed
three days hence—coal vases or refrigerators.

It will not be long before it will be certain that you need refrigerators, ice cream freezers, lawn mowers, garden tools—yes, and hose and lawn sprinklers.

Are you thinking of buying a new wheel this season? If so, you will not make a mistake if you select a Crawford or a Tribune.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

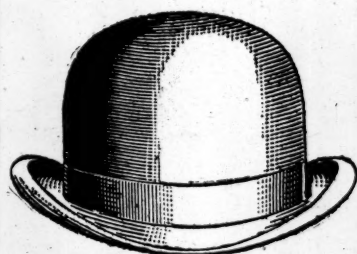

Wheels in your head
could not be expected to contribute to your pleasure, but a wheel in the right place, if of the right kind, will afford more pleasure than any other article of similar cost. Be sure that you get the right kind of a wheel. The Crawford is the right kind.

Have you seen the Tribune?

A strictly high grade wheel. If you buy it you won't be sorry.

An economical housekeeper should always buy the best refrigerator that is made, for it will save enough in food in a season to pay for itself. Our National refrigerator is economical in consuming ice, and neither flesh, fish, fowl, or anything in the way of eat-ables will spoil in it if you keep a fair amount of ice in it.

The second is that they are moderate in price—exceptionally so.

The third is that they'll prove so satisfactory and serviceable that you'll come to us when you have a shoe want.
